

Parliamentary Practice and Legislative Procedure

Applied learning in parliamentary procedure, legislative stages, motions and chamber practice.

Programme brochure · PLP-201 · curriculum version 1

Generated 27 October 2026 from current Academy records.

Current version:

<https://academy.thelegislativecentre.com/programmes/parliamentary-practice-legislative-procedure>

Training category	Parliament and Legislative Practice
Programme code	PLP-201
Level	L2 Practitioner
Format	Live online
Effort	6 weeks
Credential	Professional certificate (completion certificate)
Curriculum version	1

Overview

A structured, assessed programme for professionals whose work requires accurate understanding and application of parliamentary procedure.

- Parliamentary or assembly clerk
- Committee staff
- Member of Parliament or county assembly
- Researcher or analyst
- Legislative drafter or legal officer

Learning outcomes

- Interpret the procedural significance of core parliamentary business.
- Analyse the progression of Bills, motions, questions and statements.
- Apply Standing Orders and procedural sources to practical scenarios.

Curriculum outline

Module 1: Sources and institutions of procedure

Work confidently with constitutional and procedural sources.

- Constitutional foundations (lesson, 40 min)
- Using Standing Orders (exercise, 50 min)
- Facilitated procedure clinic (live session, 90 min)

Module 2: Business of the House

Analyse common parliamentary business and procedural decisions.

- Order Paper and sequencing (lesson, 45 min)
- Procedure case analysis (exercise, 75 min)

Assessment and completion

Completion follows the published rules of this programme version. Opening pages alone never completes a programme.

Current intakes

September professional cohort

Price	Fee published at enrolment
Delivery	Online
How to join	Apply: Places are allocated by application.

Dates, prices and places are taken from current offers when this document is generated and may change. The programme page at the address above is always current. TLC certificates are not accredited qualifications unless stated.